

McBride takes over as BARC president

September 14, 2009

THE HAMILTON SPECTATOR
(Sep 14, 2009)

Debra McBride, educator, artist and community volunteer, is the new president of the Bay Area Restoration Council (BARC), a nonprofit organization devoted to restoring and protecting Hamilton Harbour and its watershed.

Other members of the 2009-10 executive committee are former federal Fisheries biologist Victor Cairns, vice-president, and Hamilton Port Authority technologist Jonathan Wetselaar, treasurer. Erik Hess, Gary Kirkwood and Russell Perry are new members of the board.

You can learn more about BARC online at hamiltonharbour.ca
